Call to Worship

In deep gratitude we come to worship God.

We recognize God as the source of all goodness.

All good gifts come from the Spirit of God,

As do the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

We come with grateful hearts, not for things, but for who God is and how God's Spirit is equipping us for faithful living.

We gather to show our gratitude in song and prayer; to worship with our whole being.

Prelude

Jonna McRae

Spend this time thanking God and opening your heart to his loving presence.

Hymn: "For the Beauty of the Earth"

92

Affirmation of Faith:

881

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he arose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting.

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Preparing our Hearts

Father, I adore You, and I lay my life before You,

How I love You

November Bible Study invitation: To prepare ourselves for Advent and perhaps find new meaning and significance in the birth of Christ, we will be studying "The Christmas Letters: Celebrating Advent with those who told the Story First," by Magrey deVega.. Please order yourself a book and/or just come on Wednesdays in November for this 4-week study that explores some of the letters from the New Testament. What would it be like to get a Christmas Letter from one of the apostles? Romans, 1 John, Philippians, and Colossians contain the earliest attempts by the church to understand and celebrate the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. We are meant to read them as if they're written to us, to help us follow Christ. Let's study those Christmas Letters together!

For your Calendars:
