Welcome and Call to Worship

Today, on All Saints' Sunday, we remember all those who have gone before us; the men, women, and children who lived lives of faith and modeled the love and light of Jesus Christ daily. With gratitude for those who have lived and died, and for the living saints in our midst, let us worship God with thankfulness for God's loving Spirit that unites us. Let us pray: We give you thanks, O God, for all the saints who ever worshiped you, whether in brush arbors or cathedrals, weathered wooden churches or crumbling cement meeting houses, where your name was lifted and adored. We give you thanks, O God, for hands lifted in praise: Manicured hands and hands stained with grease or soil, strong hands and those gnarled with age, Holy hands- young and old- used as offerings across the land. We thank you, God, for hardworking saints; whether hard-hatted or steel-booted, head-ragged or aproned, Blue-collared or three-piece-suited, in play clothes or school uniforms, work boots, high heels, or barefoot.

We believe in the Communion of Saints; that through the Holy Spirit's presence and power, we are connected still.

Thank you, God, for the tremendous sacrifices made by those who have gone before us. Bless the memories of your saints, Loving God. May their spirits be joined with ours as we live our lives of faith.

The Saints left their mark on the earth for you, for us, and for those who come behind us. May we continue to learn to walk wisely from their examples of faith, dedication, worship, love, and service. May all those who come behind us find us faithful disciples. Amen.

Prelude

Jonna McRae

(Spend this time thanking God for loved ones and friends who have died and gone on to glory. Open your heart to God's comforting, sustaining presence).

*Affirmation of Faith:

881

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he arose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting.

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Four-Week Bible Study starts this week: Please join Pastor JoAn as we prepare our hearts and minds for Advent. We will be studying “The Christmas Letters,” by Magrey deVega. Order yourself a book and/or simply come with your Bible and an open-hearted willingness to learn and grow! What would it be like to get a Christmas Letter from one of the apostles? We will study some of the earliest attempts by the church to understand and celebrate the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. These letters are meant to be read as if they’re written to us, to help us follow Jesus Christ. Wednesdays from 5:30-7pm. (If you did order a book, please read the Intro and Chapter 1 for this week).
